

In the novel, "Breadwinner," by author Deborah Ellis, the main character Parvana, is faced with many tough choices and challenges that she must overcome. As a pre-teen, you also face many tough decisions and challenges.

Please choose one of the following writing prompts and create a descriptive re-tell of the event.

1) Describe a time in your life when you were faced with a difficult decision. Include relevant details about the decision, how you felt when making the decision, and also any factors that may have helped you make your final decision.

2) Write a fictional re-tell of a time in your life when you were faced with a difficult decision. Include relevant details about the decision, how you felt when making the decision, and also any factors that may have helped you make your final decision.